課程概述 Course Description

Beginning of Arabic course designed to introduce learners of Arabic as a second/foreign language to the basic structures of Arabic and to its uses in common situations of everyday communication. The students will continue to systematically listen to recorded texts, reading written productions of these texts, learning specific basic vocabulary and building up an additional vocabulary repertoire of about 500-600 words. I introduce the alphabet and spelling conventions of modern standard Arabic, after that I will focus on the four communication skills (reading, speaking, listening and writing) and we will immerse ourselves in Arabic language and culture through serialized and audio-visually enhanced activities. Basic grammatical rules related to nouns, verbs and particles will be learned, not as an end in themselves, but as a necessary tool to understanding how the language works.

課程目標 Course Objectives

By the time you have completed this course, you should:
