授課教師 Instructor : AHLHEID, Laura
課程名稱 Course name : Dutch for beginners (I)
課號 Course Number :
學分數 Credit Hour : 3 (每學期授課滿 18 小時為 1 學分)

課程概述 Course Description

On the course Dutch (I) students will work through chapters 1 through 8 of the course book “Totaal”. Topics during the first semester include: introducing yourself and others, family and friends, telling the time, days of the week, telephone, daily routine activities, shopping, greetings and making small talk, and social customs. Great emphasis is put on building up practical communicative skills, by means of listening and speaking activities. Each chapter contains a specific theme introducing Dutch culture and society. In the course of the semester students are expected to prepare a project to be presented in class based on these cultural themes.

課程目表 Course Objectives

After taking Dutch I students are expected to attain level A1 of the Common European Framework of References. Communicative competence at A1 means the ability to understand and use very basic everyday expressions and phrases. The speaker is able to introduce him/herself and others, can ask and respond to questions on personal details. The speaker is able to communicate in a basic way when confronted with sympathetic listeners
During the 2011 spring semester the course brings students up to A2 level, where the speaker achieves effective communication using basic daily expressions and familiar topics ( such as personal information, family, shopping, leisure activities and work).
