

貿易法專題研究

Seminar: Selected Topics on International Trade Law

Economic Cooperation Framework Agreement between Taiwan and China

Chang-fa Lo

September 2010

The course has different focus each year. For this year, the focus of the discussion will be on the newly concluded Economic Cooperation Framework Agreement (ECFA) between two sides of Taiwan Strait. This is a milestone agreement marking a new stage of the cross strait relations. The discussion will be mainly from WTO perspectives. There will be discussions on the forms of regional trade agreements and the contents of ECFA as well as their consistency with the WTO. Discussions could also include its political and economic implications for both sides. Students will be responsible for doing their researches and presenting their research papers at the classes.