課程目標 Course Objectives

The main aim is to introduce the most famous manifestations of the Spanish Pop Culture, both traditional and modern, including also some references to the Spanish political system as a way of understanding the political background of culture.

課程概述 Course Description

This course will present in a critical way the classical Spanish cultural manifestations as flamenco, bullfighting, traditional feasts (Feria de Abril, las Fallas, Sanfermines, etc.), religious manifestations (Holy Week), etc. and also counter-cultural manifestations of modern society, in order to understand the variety of Spanish culture, not only in content but also geographically speaking. The materials of the course will be read and discussed during the class. Students' participation is expected and a formal presentation on one of the topic of the syllabus or other one the student is interested in.

課程要求 Requirements

The requirements are to have studied Spanish II or to have a good command of Spanish, regardless how they have been acquired.

參考書目 Textbook and References

The main material is given by the professor the first day of class; this is a notebook in Spanish of 120 pages titled Cultura Popular Española (2010). It is fully illustrated, and it will be used during classes, and to prepare the exams. Sometimes this material will be complemented in class with a PowerPoint presentation of some documentaries. Each chapter has at the end a bibliography of materials available in NTU Main Library that might help the students in their presentation.
